DAY 1

Porto Vecchio, Corsica

Porto Vecchio, known as the Corsican St-Tropez, exudes a shamelessly seductive and fashionably alluring charm. The town is divided into three distinct areas - the ancient hilltop core, the modern marina in the beautiful bay below, and the sprawling urban developments across the inland plain. As a result, it has become the third most populous town in Corsica.

Bonifacio, Corsica

With its impressive perch atop a cliff overlooking the waters, the town of Bonifacio presents a breathtaking sight for yacht arrivals. The entrance to its harbor is concealed by a narrow opening at the base of the cliffs. Bonifacio boasts numerous restaurants and bars as well as the nearby Sperone Golf Club. Set on a limestone pedestal, it is undoubtedly one of the most magnificent towns in the Mediterranean.

Cavallo Island, Corsica

This protected gathering of uninhabited islets is a paradise for those who love to revel in serene, jewel-toned waters. Indulge in a delectable lunch at the exquisite Hotel des Pecheurs.

La Maddalena, Sardinia

Embark on a journey to Sardinia and immerse yourself in the verdant splendor of La Maddalena. The seven primary islands, which are the remnants of an underwater valley that once linked Sardinia and Corsica, are the main attractions. The Arcipelago di La Maddalena, one of the most stunning natural wonders in Sardinia, offers breathtaking windswept seascapes.

Cala di Volpe, Sardinia

Nestled in close proximity to Porto Cervo lies the "Bay of the Fox", a serene bay with ample protection and picturesque sandy beaches. The highlight of this bay is undoubtedly the luxurious five-star Hotel Cala di Volpe, situated at the bay's end and overlooked by the stunning Pevero Golf Course. Arguably the most opulent resort in Sardinia, Cala di Volpe boasts a tranquil beach situated in a sheltered bay.

Tavolara, Sardinia

Experience the stunning sights of Cala Figari and Oliba Gulf, as you sail through the captivating Islands of Tavolara and Molara. In the 19th and 20th centuries, Tavolara was recognized as the world's smallest kingdom, a remarkable feat for an island that spans only 5km in length and 1km in width. Once you reach Tavolara, you can drop anchor in Spalmatore Bay, a charming location that offers a peaceful and serene atmosphere, perfect for witnessing the splendid beauty of the marine world.

Porto Cervo, Sardinia

A fascinating portrayal of Mediterranean splendor, Porto Cervo is an intriguing and artificial destination. The idyllic village boasts a unique amalgamation of Greek, North African, Spanish, and Italian architectural styles, making it a perfect place to conclude your charter.
