DAY 1

Athens-Aegina

According to the myth, the island took its name from a nymph, daughter of the river god Asopos, whom Zeus fell in love with and took with him to the island. Even though the island is very small, it boasts a great number of sights and natural beauties, highlight of which is the famous Aphaia Temple.

DAY 2

Aegina-Galaxidi

Cross through the Corinth canal, which unites the Saronic Bay with the Bay of Corinth - an experience in itself, and arrive at Galaxidi. Galaxidi, a clean and pleasant town, is picturesquely situated on a small wooded bay with a fine view of Parnassos. As well as the inspiring natural beauty that surrounds the city, and the crystal blue waters.

DAY 3

Galaxidi - Zakynthos

Zakynthos, or Zante, is among the most beautiful and popular islands of the Ionian sea. Located south of Kefalonia, it is world famous for its crystal beaches and intense nightlife. The most famous beach on the island is the wonderful Navagio (shipwreck) beach, a secluded cove with white sand and turquoise waters.

DAY 4

Zakynthos - Kefalonia

Fiscardo is a picturesque and beautiful Greek harbour village on the Northern tip of Kefalonia, largest of the seven Ionian islands. Of the approximate 365 villages on this large and diverse island, Fiscardo is unique in that it was left virtually undamaged during the great earthquake of 1953, that ruined most of the historic buildings on Kefalonia.

DAY 5

Kefalonia - Ithaki

Cruise to Homer's Ithaca. Explore a landscape that resonates with ancient folklore: the cave of the Nymphs and the palace of Odysseus. In the early evening go ashore to the tavernas that line the ports.

DAY 6

Ithaki - Meganisi

Meganisi is a small island with lush greenery and blue green waters. The island has plenty to offer, with lots of sandy beaches to bask on, sleepy whitewashed villages, such as Katomeri or Spartochori to wander around and lots of paths to help you explore in the centre of the island.

DAY 7

Meganisi - Lefkada

Lefkada (also known as Lefkas) is a mountainous island, covered with dense vegetation to the east and south. Its eastern coast slopes gently down to the sea, which is sheltered from the wind and dotted with thickly wooded islets. The most famous of these are Skorpaios, Madouri and Sparti. In contrast, the west coast is steep, with a few stunted pine trees and lined with spectacular stretches of endless golden beach.

DAY 8 - 9

Antipaxos and Paxos

The tiny island of Antipaxos is a quiet and remote paradise with attractive beaches such as Vrika and Voutoumi, famous for their transparent waters and breathtaking settings, that offer excellent swimming and snorkeling. One mile north of Antipaxos lies Paxos, a small island also famous for its wonderful beaches and an exotic blue sea.
